

Greedy Charles made the loggers start cutting all the trees. He took money from the old grandpa loggers which was supposed to help them live after they got too old to work. The animals had nowhere to go and the loggers were worried.